

Claim Form

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

If you worked as a driver providing non-emergency medical transportation (NEMT) services in D.C., you may have a claim for unpaid wages for time worked.

A court authorized this notice. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

If you provided NEMT services in DC from July 13, 2014 to March 15, 2024 under contracts with Medical Transportation Management (MTM), you have been part of a class action lawsuit alleging that drivers were not paid all the wages owed for time worked providing NEMT services in DC from July 13, 2014 to March 15, 2024. The Plaintiffs' claims in this case are only against MTM, not the companies who directly employed the drivers. The drivers allege that MTM is responsible for any unpaid wages owed the drivers. MTM denies these allegations.

In the next part of the case, the Court will decide if individual drivers are owed any wages.
